

PTA The Torrance Council Way

Mrs. Ralph Gring

TORRANCE COUNCIL
Announcement was made at the recent Executive Board meeting of Torrance Council of PTA of the Workshops to be held Sept. 22, 1966 from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. at the First Christian Church, 2930 Eldorado Ave. in Torrance.

The workshops, to be held under the direction of Mrs. Ben Hatfield, first vice president, are: recording secretary, corresponding secretary, treasurer, historian, courtesy, hospitality, parliamentary, room representative, honorary life, Founders Day, program, magazine, ways and means, health, student welfare, citizenship, recreation, safety, juvenile protection, pre-school, library, parent education, inspiration, membership, exhibits and posters, record book and publicity.

COLUMBIA
Columbia PTA will hold its first meeting of the 1966-67 school year on Sept. 20 at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. "Columbia Train of Thought" has been chosen as the program theme for the year and the first meeting theme will be "All Aboard."

Lester Foster, principal of Columbia, will introduce the staff. Open house will be held and the parents will have an opportunity to see their child's classroom and get acquainted with their teacher. Mrs. LeRoy Forehand, program chairman, will announce the program for the coming year. Mrs. Kenneth Polry, president, will introduce the board members.

EDISON
At a recent board meeting of Edison PTA, Mrs. George Hausauer presented her resignation and Mrs. Ralph Mousseau was elected the new Edison PTA president. Mrs. Hausauer is moving with her family to Moses Lake, Washington.

Edison PTA hosted a Teachers' Brunch for the school staff and faculty and also a tea for the kindergarten mothers.

HILLSIDE
The first PTA meeting for Hillside will be an Open House on Monday evening, Sept. 19. Books and projects will be on display in each classroom. This is an opportunity for parents and teachers to meet, become acquainted and discuss the work to be done in each classroom during the year. Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria immediately following the Open House.

PERRY
To encourage families to participate in school events, Perry PTA Executive Board will sponsor a Melon Festival and Watermelon Eating Contest on Thursday, Sept. 22 from 5 to 6 p.m. This contest is for kids and dads. Prizes are free tickets for the Buss Carson Western Show to be held on Sept. 24. After the contest at 7:30 p.m. the PTA meeting will be held. The theme for the year is "Let's Communicate" and the first event will be "Sneak Preview" giving a resume of the interesting PTA program planned for the year.

A great deal of effort has been extended in working out special events which will interest all parents.

The Western show on Sept. 24 at 12 noon to 5 p.m. will feature many interesting attractions. One full hour of performances with trained dogs and a horse show. The whole family will enjoy the fun and Chuck Wagon with varied types of refreshments.

Perry will hold a paper drive on Monday, Sept. 26. Papers are to be delivered to the school in the morning from 8 to 11 a.m. The funds from the drive are used to help PTA contribute toward Dental Health, Milk and Lunch, and various PTA activities for children.

WEST HIGH
"Welfare of Youth, Communication and Service" is the theme of the program planned by West High School

PTA for the 1966-67 school year.

"Know Your Student's Teachers and Program" will launch the school year with Open House, Oct. 11. A brief unit meeting will precede. Refreshments will be served in the school library. The November meeting will have a student panel participating in "Student-Parent Communication" with Merrill Lauden, social studies teacher as moderator. The Board of Education will hold its monthly meeting at West High in January, its theme, "Community Communication."

Dr. Boyd Kraut, head physician, community consultation service, department of psychiatry at Harbor General Hospital, will be guest speaker at the February meeting at which time the theme will be "Parent-Student Communication." "Sex Education and Newer Development in Genetics," will be discussed in March with Mrs. Nancy Siskowic, school nurse, and William Bowden, biology teacher, as speakers. In May, "Self-Management of Student Affairs," will be discussed by members of the student council with Mrs. Kay Denney, activities advisor, presiding.

The annual luncheon for the teachers of West High was held Sept. 13 with 117 people in attendance. The color scheme was brown and gold, tying in with "Brown and Gold Night," Sept. 16, when West High opens its football season. The PTA operates the concession stand at all football games.

New members of the executive board recently ratified are Mmes. Bert Ferris, first vice president, and Steve Haston, courtesy chairman.

Triple T's next event will be a Guest Night Dance at the Club Alondra on Oct. 8.

Localites At San Jose Convention

Among the 1,000 delegates attending the six day International Convention of the Rostrocian Order held in San Jose recently were Mildred Di Santo and David Cecil of Torrance.

The convention consisted of lectures and demonstrations in the fields of art, science and mysticism.

Delegates were shown the Order's latest contribution to culture in the Central California area, the United States' only museum devoted exclusively to Egyptian Babylonian artifacts.

The structure located in a San Jose park houses the largest collection of Egyptian antiquities in the western United States. The museum is open free to the public and is a principal object for field trips for many schools in central California.
